Minimalistic icon without boundaries. Club sofa has been designed with simplicity and usefulness in mind and will transform any outdoor or indoor space thanks to its simple modular character and its durable materials. This sofa boasts simplicity, with clean lines and a minimalist design that exudes modern elegance. Its thick steel structure ensures durability, able to withstand even the toughest outdoor conditions. The loose cushions add an element of practicality in case of sudden rain. Club can match any decoration style, since it blends with the environment in a discreet way rather than being too noisy.
