Design by Susanne Grønlund, 2016

Growing into something new With references to branches on a tree, the delicate and slightly bent legs seize the upper part of the NOOMI chair and create a strong graphic expression. The frame is light, but distinctive with a modern shape that almost makes the soft, rounded upper part of the chair look like it's hovering above the floor. An ultra-modern chair where steel and fabric meet in a harmonic and organic whole.
