HAND-KNOTTED RUG COLLECTION

Crafted with the utmost care and dedication to tradition, this collection celebrates the exceptional artistry of Nepalese hand-knotting. Every rug is meticulously woven by skilled artisans, tying thousands of individual knots to recreate the flowing lines and rich detail of Morris & Co.'s iconic archival designs. This timeless, labour-intensive process gives each piece a luxurious, heavy pile and a beautifully unique character underfoot, ensuring that these classic patterns endure for generations to come.

THEODOSIA

Adapted from the hand-painted, Jacobean-style trail of scrolling leaves and stylised flowerheads found on Kelmscott Manor's embroidered bed hangings, Theodosia is a celebration of Arts & Crafts heritage. Reimagined as a sumptuous hand-knotted rug in Bottle Green, it brings a beautifully expressive piece of history to life.
