With more than 30 years of experience ila has collaborated with the most prestigious brands in the world offering unique and exclusive products.

Since the beginning of its history, ila has adopted the Seminatural philosophy in the production of trees and plants. The combination of 100% natural trunks (sourced from environmentally-friendly areas and treated with anti-age and parasitic treatments), the finest man-made leaves and the authentic Italian craftsmanship is what makes our timeless creations so special.

Vertical Garden: the new frontier of Design

Despite having appeared for the first time back in 1986, Vertical Gardens (also known as Green Walls) have recently become a staple in modern architecture.

The wish to educate society to a renewed contact with the environment has certainly been a key factor in the increasing request for this architectural feature that we have witnessed in the last few years.

It's easy to see the advantages that the use of artificial and seminatural plants can bring to the design and concept of Vertical Gardens, both in terms of saving costs and beauty.

As a matter of fact, one of the major hindrances of natural Green Walls is the complexity of the installation and maintenance of irrigation systems which entails high costs to place and keep the greenery in a good state.

ila Seminatural Vertical Gardens can offer all the advantages and beauty of a natural feel while doing without the often prohibitive costs of natural green.

Our Seminatural trees, plants and Vertical Gardens are easy to install, ready for the use and do not need any irrigation nor any maintenance work.

Whereas plants and flowers on green walls tend to naturally rot, fade and have to be replaced on a regular basis, Vertical Gardens by ila are truly timeless creations, faithful replicas of nature that will keep their astonishingly fresh look for years, unaltered by time and seasons.

Vertical Gardens by ila: Portraits of Nature

Like all our collections, Vertical Gardens by ila are a unique blend of faithful replicas of Nature and our Craftsmen creativity. “

Just try going outside...
... all sort of things happen then

Vincent Van Gogh

ila's goal and mission has always been to merge Nature and Design, human self-conception of space along with the natural spaces typical of all kinds of Flora.

In a further development of this exciting continual research, ila is now ready to make the next big step and transfer its mastery for the Natural Design to outdoor spaces and exterior environments.

Inspired by Nature at its wildest state, all our creations have succeeded in capturing her powerful essence, thus erasing limits and boundaries that shape our reality and our lives: what's in and what's out, natural and artificial, etc.

The Vertical Gardens Plein Air have been created with the most advanced techniques and materials. UV Resistant leaves will maintain the same beauty for a long a time even if exposed to sunlight, rain and weather changes.
