RUFLE is an elegant and comfortable lounge seating series, that facilitates independent working sessions, conversational groups or a private, peaceful retreat.

At the heart of the RUFLE Lounge Collection lies an innovative and captivating geometry that transforms any space into a haven of elegance and comfort.

The defining feature of RUFLE is its curvaceous and inviting backrest, carefully designed to create a unique experience of comfort and aesthetics.

The gentle, flowing curves of RUFLE's backrest are more than just a visual delight; they cradle your body in a warm embrace, inviting relaxation and repose. This distinctive concave shape isn't just about style; it's a testimony to ergonomic and individual needs.

The first edition in the series is a high backrest version with swivel base.
